GIABA to Hold a Briefing Session for Ambassadors of Member States

The Intergovernmental Group Action against Money Laundering in West Africa (GIABA) holds on July 30, 2010 at 16 :00 in its premises, a briefing session for ambassadors and consuls of the fifteen Member States of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) residing Senegal and for representatives of development partners.

This session is in line with the recommendation of the 64th Session of the Council of Ministers of ECOWAS adopted by the 38th Summit of Heads of State and Government held in Sal (Cape Verde), the July 2, 2010. Indeed, the 64th Session of the Council of Ministers of ECOWAS has recommended that the Institutions of the Community hold regular briefing sessions for Ambassadors / Representatives of Member States on their activities.

The briefing session which is interactive will provide the guests the opportunity to appreciate the roles of the institution, its activities and its efforts in leading the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing in West Africa.

GIABA as a specialised institution of ECOWAS in charge of coordinating regional efforts and actions against money laundering and terrorist financing will also take this opportunity to showcase the new premises provided by the Government of Senegal.
